Dear Mobile Library User,

You may be aware that North Yorkshire County Council approved proposals that will save £1.7 million from its library service budget over three years starting 1 April 2011.

This means that your current mobile service will cease from Friday 16 September 2011.

We are now working with representatives from your community to identify ways to continue to provide a service for those people unable to access the library service by any other means. This may include having a library outlet collection in a suitable venue such as your local village hall, as well as extending the Home Library and Information Service provided by volunteers to people in their own homes.

If you wish to know more about the Home Library and Information Service as a user or volunteer or can suggest a location for a library drop-off point/book collection please hand this form into the mobile staff or contact library secretaries on 01609 533811 or email libraries@northyorks.gov.uk
